WANTED TO START FISH MARKET NOW

The Japanese fishing corporation which will have its fishmarket erected at the corner of Pauahi and River streets has rented certain portions of the store of C. Q. Yee Hop Meat Company on King street near the fishmarket. This step was taken in order that the sale of fish may be begun at once.

According to certain members of the corporation, the deal was settled some time last Monday. C. Q. Yee Hop, when seen today, stated that the Japanese has offered him too small a rent and on that account he was reconsidering the renting of the place. There was no written agreement made, and therefore the deal could be altered at any time.

WATERFRONT NOTES

OWING TO A misunderstanding over wages, two firemen left the oil steamer Rosecrans just before she sailed from this port the other day for Monterey. The regular pay day is the 11th, but for some reason, no pay was forthcoming on that day. In port here, the men asked wages, and still none were paid. The sailors were amiable and none left the ship, but the two firemen jumped, saying that they had not been regularly signed on. If this is found to be actually the case, they will be entitled to wages. If it is not, and they signed as they should have, they are deserters, and will get nothing. Also, if it is found that they were serving on the vessel without signing articles, the captain of the steamer will be in trouble, as warning has been issued to the oil boats to be careful in the matter of signing on crews.

THE MESSAGE

received here by the Kahuku station, and meant for Captain Matson, at sea on the Lurline, will be handed to him when he arrives here tomorrow, to be checked with that which the Lurline's operator received. If they are found to be identical, the success of the receipt of the first trans-Pacific wireless message will be proven.

THE CLAUDINE

came in this morning from her run to Maui and Hilo, with an average passenger list and a cargo in which there was no sugar. The cargo was: 20 sacks charcoal, 30 sacks potatoes, 86 empty barrels, 28 hogs, 91 packages empty bottles, and 133 packages sundries.

IT IS THOUGHT that the investigation of the alleged bumping of the marine railway by the Mongolla will lead to the question of the liability of the Territory for damage to vessels or damage caused by vessels while in their charge.

THE RECENT run of fish in the harbor is still so fresh in the memories of the natives that a large number of fishermen may be still seen on the Naval wharf, with bamboo poles in hand.

THREE HAWAIIANS

were enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the recruiting station yesterday.

THE KINAU sails this afternoon at 5 o'clock for Kaula.

Irene I. Holloway has made application to the courts that her former husband, "Cabby" Brown, be ordered to give her $500 out of the estate for traveling expenses for herself on a trip to Massachusetts, where she intends placing her son, Francis Hyde II Brown, in school. She also asks for $150 per month for the boy's school expenses.
